Declaration of Ownership of Exterior Modification for Townhomes

This document serves as a Declaration for an approved modification to a townhome, address below. This document also serves to inform a future buyer of the modification made to the townhome as well as their ongoing responsibilities for its maintenance

Modification: _____

Address: _____

By signing this Declaration, you, the owner/s, agree to pay for the above Modification, in accordance with the Architectural Review Committee ("ARC") Guidelines. You also agree to perform any necessary repairs, replacement, maintenance etc. as needed for the modification installed at the above address, at your cost. This shall include any request for such repairs by the Condominium Association Board ("COA") or any committee assigned by the COA. You also agree to assume all liabilities associated with this Modification.

In the event that the above named Townhome is to be sold, the following actions must occur:

1. Restoration of the modification to good working order. An inspection will be conducted by the COA to ensure good working order and to ensure no damage to Limited Common Elements or Common Elements of the Townhome. If damage is found or maintenance of good working order has not occurred, the owner/s will be financially responsible for promptly carrying out any repairs or restoration;
2. The modification must have been reviewed and approved by the ARC. If this is not the case, the modification must be removed and the townhome returned to its original condition;
3. The new owner/s will assume ownership of the above modification as described herein and must sign a new Declaration for same.
